American groups age 15-17 accompanied by their teacher visit Germany, attend a typical German high school, live in a German family and get to know different places and sights.

Students spend 3 weeks perfecting German listening and speaking skills and experiencing German culture and life.

Our fees: EUR 1500

Included:
Homestay accommodations (2 meals) and school placement, German railpass, health insurance, excursions

Students who visit Western Germany will be offered the following excursions to:

1. Cologne, the Roman city with its famous cathedral
2. a boat trip on the Rhine passing the Loreley.
3. Tour of Aachen, the old imperial city of Charlemagne
4. Heidelberg on the Neckar with its famous castle and university where many Americans have studied.
5. 4 days in Munich and Garmisch Partenkirchen.
