Begin this 3-week adventure with a “ropes’ course” to gain confidence and new friends. Each step of this adventure will be carefully orchestrated so that you gain skills needed before using them in the mountains. Have two days of rock climbing instruction on an indoor climbing wall at Rockreation before scaling a real rock. Spend four days in Moab mountain biking on terrain that works for each individual. Hike through the hauntingly beautiful Arches National Park. White water raft with seasoned professionals. Meet and get to know many local kids with similar interests.
