Enthusiastic Host Families are carefully selected/ screened to match as closely as possible with a visiting foreign student.

Participating foreign students will learn how a Host Family lives, works, eats, goes shopping, to the movies, and whose activities may include camping, all kinds of sports, music, theater, rafting, boating, hiking, bowling, and cooking and enjoying meals together. Optional day camps may be available for an extra charge, depending upon the activity (tennis, golf, basketball, dance, music, etc) and may be attended with a Host brother or sister. Cost $200-300. Non-paying internships and volunteering available in select communities. AHA foreign students in the area of your choice are from a variety of countries, including Japan, France, Spain, Brazil, Argentina, Germany, Greece, and South Korea. Language instruction available in North Carolina. Go to our website (www.adventurehomstays.org) and click on US to find application and more details.
